Local Youth Competes In 1979 International Special Olympics

Alvin Walker, 18, son of William and Flossie Walker Rt. 1 of Pamplin, competed in the International Special Olympics in Brockport, New York August 9 through 11.

These International Games, held every four years, involved 3,500 athletes and over 5,000 volunteers. The athletes representing 50 states and 39 countries, performed before 10,000 to 15,000 spectators.

The 45 athletes representing the Commonwealth of Virginia brought home 51 medals and 20 ribbons. Three athletes representing Area 12 and two athletes representing Area 14 made a total of five Olympians from Central Virginia.

In Brockport the athletes enjoyed a carnival, Variety Show by the celebrities, dances and a trip to Niagara Falls. During his weekend of excitement Alvin met Susan St. James, Maureen McCormick, Christopher Reeves, Mohammed Ali, Hank Aaron, Marlo Thomas, Phil Donahue, Sally Struthers, Eunice Kennedy Shriver and others.

Appomattox can be very proud of Alvin. In his competition Alvin won fourth place in the Standing Long Jump and the 50 meter dash. As part of the Virginia athletes Alvin received a Special Olympic wardrobe including a hat, jacket, shorts, pants, socks, shoes and travel bag. As part of the International Olympics he received levi shorts, a belt, a shirt and Olympic tote bag.

Roger Fleming of Richmond won the Best Athlete Award for his total highest score. This is quite a distinction among 3,500 athletes.

If you would like to see some of the International Games tune into ABC's Wide World of Sports Saturday 5:00 to 6:30p.m. They will air a 30 minute segment. You may see the Virginia representatives and Alvin Walker of Appomattox.

Alvin was able to participate because Appomattox County financially supports their athletes throughout the year. Although we didn't pay the $450 fee to send Alvin Area 12 felt we had done well with our support of Local and State Games during the past four years.

The Appomattox County Special Olympics thanks the businesses, civic organizations, youth groups, church groups and individuals who support our athletes. We look forward to further community support for this wonderful experience for our Special Olympians. The next meet will be the Basketball competition Dec. 1 at Lynchburg College.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALVIN WALKER for his two wins in the 1979 INTERNATIONAL SPECIAL OLYMPICS.

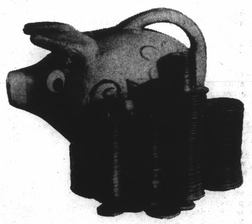
Instruct your children in the precious art of saving...



There are some things your children never learn in school. Like the value of money and the importance of saving. We can't think of a better way to prepare them for the future than by opening a savings account for them during their school years. Then each time they earn money or receive money as a gift, they can set aside a little in their savings account.

Merit Awards To Two U.C. Loggers

Two more Union Camp Loggers have been awarded the Virginia Forestry Association's "Logger Merit Award" for outstanding performance in harvesting timber. C. W. Moore and his sons of Gladstone, and Omar Moore and his sons, also of Gladstone, are the producers honored.

C. W. Moore and Omar Moore have small family operations whose efficiency and pride are reflected in production per man day and care of landowner property. Those men who produce 146 cords of roundwood per four-day week (12.3 cords pre man day) are a rarity in the present work-a-day world.

These men do such a fine job and take such great pains to protect property that Union Camp receives numerous requests for tracts to be cut by the Moores. From a supervisory point of view these operations run very smoothly due to excellent handling of touchy problems such as power lines and fences so that landowners who start out being somewhat hostile usually wind up with compliments to the logging crew.

The well organized operations with good equipment always act in a businesslike manner repairing fences and roads if needed along with removing tops and slash from fields. Landowners appreciate this kind of attention when having their timber-land harvested.
